YTD IMPACT BY THE NUMBERS

SIGNIFICANT RESPONSE ACTIVITIES

- A domestic violence victim was referred to our Behavioral Health Responder line after calling an APD substation from the hospital. CORA was able to step in. ACS provided a bus ticket to Texas back home with her family. CORA transported the victim to the Domestic Violence Resource Center where an advocate met with her and safely got the woman onto the bus.
- CORA reached out to the family of a juvenile male who was shot at Cedar Ridge Park last month. CORA connected the family to Hawthorn Hotel where they received housing assistance.
- CORA assisted a woman who lost her home in a structure fire. CORA connected her to Healthcare for the Homeless for documentation, Crossroads for Women for housing case management, and First Nations for medical treatment.
- In March, CORA began working with a sex trafficking victim. CORA connected the woman to NM Dream Center for housing case management and counseling, TenderLove for SAFEHOUSE assistance, and the Rape Crisis Center.
- Following a homicide on First Street, CORA conducted outreach with the Hopeworks Street outreach team. CORA Responders offered support and resources to the impacted community. We connected with 25 unhoused individuals, offering counseling services, warm soup, and case management through Hopeworks.
- CORA worked extensively with a refugee family dealing with domestic violence. CORA was able to relocate the family to the SAFE house. Several meetings were held with community partners as we worked together to support this family.

PROACTIVE AND ONGOING COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

- In March CORA attended the first monthly meeting of the Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Commission.
- CORA is part of the UNIDOS Steering Committee
- CORA took part in the Violence Intervention Program's presentation at Garfield Middle School
- On March 15th, CORA presented to the New Mexico Black Leadership Council about CORA's response.
