CPC members present: William Orr, Joseph Farrell, Doug Vigil

CPC members not present - Troy Taylor, Richard Lujan,

1. Call to order – 6:30 PM
2. CPC Overview – Who we are – What is our mission; introduction of Council
3. Amended and approved of November Agenda – No Quorum
4. Amended and Approved of September Minutes – No Quorum
5. Questions of concerns within neighborhoods
6. Assistant FBI Special agent Ruban Marchand-Morales
  - Limited resources and personnel when it comes to certain criminal programs.
  - 1-800-call-FBI to give information and tips.
    - The calls go to Washington DC or Virginia; they get the information to evaluate the call and determine the needed resources.
  - They receive anywhere from 30 to 40 referrals through the FBI's main offices.
    - When a threat or harm involves kids, they have 24 hours to get as much information.
  - They work closely with local and state police on information sharing.
7. Deputy Director of CABQ Planning Department Code Enforcement Jeremy Keiser
  - Identify the property owner to determine if the individuals are permitted to be on the property.
    - If not permitted to be on the property they have to vacate.
    - A notice of violation will be sent to the property owner of the encampments on the property.
    - If they get a hold of the property owner they do a due process, and then an administrative hearing to get the individual off the property.
8. The ADAPT Program's Amanda Keiter will speak about the City's mission on Abandoned, Dilapidated and Abatement Properties
  - Properties have to qualify for the program.
    - There would need to be a lot of criminal activity and calls for service.
  - The ADAPT program has an attorney, and a paralegal who goes through police reports generated for the property.

- The seriousness of the offenses gives higher points, and lower offenses get lower points. The base of the point system determines if the property qualifies for the program.
- Each department looks for different violations when ADAPT conducts its inspection
  - Code enforcement – code violations
  - Fire Marshall – Fire violations
  - Crime prevention – The city adopted a nuisance abatement ordinance.
- Their goal is to decrease criminal activity and make a better property safer for the community, residents, and customers.

9. NE Area Command Crime statistics (statistics report attached)

- Property crime numbers are calls for service
- From last year auto theft is down 2%
