

YEAR three UPDATE

Tackling Crime from All Sides

Reversed worst-in-the-nation property crime rates; auto theft, burglary and robbery falling each year

Created Community Safety Department

Created Metro 15 offenders; 73% of offenders are no longer on ABQ streets

Tripled the size of the homicide unit and investing in long overdue crime fighting technology

Targeting dangerous quality of life issues like speeding and street racing in ABQ

Creation of Superintendent of Police Reform Position

Compassionate Solutions for the Unhoused

Doubled the number of people being served by the City's homeless support system

Westside Emergency Housing Center (WEHC) open year-round; open 24/7 hours with 3 meals a day during pandemic

Stood up 5 hotels to help vulnerable populations survive the quarantine

Purchased Gibson Medical Center to serve as health hub and cornerstone of the Gateway Centers

Created a fast-track to housing for families to get into their own homes using housing vouchers

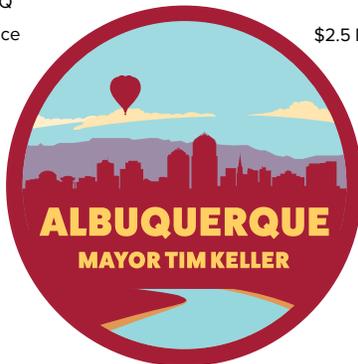

Making ABQ Sustainable

Top 10 sustainable cities in the country

On track to be 100% renewable by 2025

Updated green building codes

Transitioning fleet to electric buses and vehicles

Wifi on wheels and wifi in the neighborhood hotspots

$1 M dollars for rent and utilities assistance with $24 M on the way

Three-quarters of a million meals to seniors

12,000 home visits

$1 M dollar Black Community Investment Fund

$2.5 M in CARES funding for families not eligible for other aid

COVID-19 Safety Net and Recovery

$12 M in local business grants

Waived hundreds of thousands of dollars in permitting fees

Free PPE to businesses

Free Job Training Albuquerque program

Opening of the Minority Business Development Center

Bringing thousands of new jobs online with Netflix, Orion, Bueno Foods

ABQ's own 'New Deal' to invest $200 M in transformative infrastructure

Boosting the Economy

Free childcare for essential workers during pandemic

An Explora expansion for teenagers

Virtual and COVID safe in-person summer programs

Keeping Youth Safe and Engaged