2. Agenda/Approval of Minutes

Agenda for the April 16, 2015 was voted on and approved. It was decided to table the “Bike Patrol” discussion with 7 votes “yes”, and 1 vote “no”. All other agenda items were approved unanimously by council members. Minutes for the March 19, 2015 meeting was voted on and all approved.

3. Discussion

The majority of the meeting was spent revising a draft of By-Laws written and presented to the Council by Clara Padilla-Silver, Co-Chair of the Southeast Council. Clara will make the changes to the agreed upon by Council and email the edited version of the By Laws to the Council members for final revision or edit. The final document will be presented to Council during next meeting for final approval and vote.

Three resolutions were presented to the Council for possible recommendation to the Chief of Police by Cassandra Reckaway, Council member. One of the resolutions was briefly discussed; however, it was decided that proper time and dedication could not be given to the issue due to lack of time. Council decided to table the discussion and continue with the items during the next Southeast Council meeting.

4. Public Comment

No public comments were made

5. Other Business

Celina Espinoza, Communications & Community Outreach Director, informed Council of the fact that the Open Meetings Act did not need to be strictly adhered to by the Council.
